

Company profile

Vitria Technology, Inc. (Nasdaq:VITR) is the leading provider of business process integration solutions. The company pioneered the enterprise application integration market in 1994 and the use of business process management in 1997, and is now the first integration solution provider to solve integration challenges through collaborative applications. With 23 offices around the world, Vitria's customer base includes such companies as Bell South, The Blue Cross Blue Shield Association, BP, DaimlerChrysler Bank, Dana, Generali, The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, PacifiCare Health Systems, Reynolds and Reynolds, Schneider Logistics, Sprint, Trane, Trans Union, and more..

Alliances and partnerships

Through our ISV and Partner Connections programs, Vitria maintains close relationships with a large number of system integrators, value-added-resellers and manufacturers, who offer complementary technologies. These include: Accenture, BearingPoint, Cap Gemini Ernst & Young, Clarify, Convergys, Danet, DMR, EDS, entory, IDS Scheer, Linkvest, MetaSolv, Microsoft, Oracle, PeopleSoft, Portal, SAP, Sapient, Siebel, Sun und T-Systems.

Vitria:BusinessWare®

The award-winning Vitria:BusinessWare® integration platform delivers results for today's challenging business integration issues and lays the foundation for business agility. Vitria:BusinessWare® is a platform that orchestrates interactions between a company's existing and future applications, data, people and partners to provide real-time visibility and control over business process.

www.vitria.com